A charming reception was given at the Presbyterian College Saturday afternoon from the hours of 4:30 to 7. The alumnae, assisted by the faculty of this well-known institution, received and the occasion was one of unusual pleasure. The halls and parlors had been beautifully decorated with cut flowers, palms and other potted plants. Lovely roses, variegated nasturtiums and clusters of golden rod were to be seen on every hand, and the color effect was very pleasing. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, where the color scheme was pink, in the library, to each guest in turn was handed the "cup that cheers but does not inebriate," and thus the afternoon passed. All who were so fortunate as to be present hope for a repetition of the reception in the near future. The silver offering will be used to educate one of the young ladies of the college.

Mrs. I. W. Faison, A. L. Smith, S. C. Clark and delegates to the Daughters of the American Revolution meeting to be held at Morganton next week. Those who attend will leave here Tuesday.

The latest fad among the smart set in women colleges now is "the school girl's heart." It is a heart cut from stiff red card board, and pasted upon it are some of the things school girls love. One heart just seen has the following items upon it: "Boys," "candy," "mild teachers," "short sermons," "very lessons," "pretty clothes," "mating," "lennie," "pickle," "recess," "Charlotte," "ice cream" and "holidays."

The Woman's Club which has over a hundred members has just issued the programme for the following year. The officers are: Mrs. Eugene S. Reilly, president; Mrs. I. W. Faison, vice-presi-

Every Woman

Dresses to please at least one person besides herself—usually that one is a man.

A man quickly notices a woman's shoes. Many invite no second glance, but some are so charming as to continually bespeak his attention, he probably cannot tell why. Every woman, knowing the art of dressing, knows that the secret lies in the "perfect fit" of a smart, womanly shoe.

Such are Sycle's Shoes. They clothe the foot in a "perfect fit" and captivat- ing styles. They are de- signed to suit the woman and please the man.
